To-morrow will begin a tennis tournament at the Casino for girls under 16 years, and on Friday a boys' tournament will start. This will be the first juvenile tennis event of the season and is hailed with delight by the young persons. In other years, Mr. James J. Van Alen used to have a tournament each year on the courts at Wakehurst, and now that he is Europe the younger set have missed the impetus which his events gave in making competition.

Mr. W. Goadby Loew has offered prises for the girls' tournament and Mrs. Stuart Duncan has given prizes for the boys. In the girls' tournament there will be two classes, for those under and those more than thirteen. Already entered in Class A are Misses Marion Gray, Anne King Carley, E. Hope Iselin, Elizabeth Woodward, Marion Wickes, Mary Ames, Fanny Wickes, Edith Woodward, Laura Biddle, Sylvia Brewster and Violet Tangeman. In Class B, under thirteen, are Winifred Loew, Phyllis Baker. Mary Hammond, Milicent Hammond and Leta Morris.
